Serving Since 1974

The Shepherd Center is an interfaith outreach of compassion-- educating, assisting, and supporting the needs of all in our community. Through our faith conviction, we feed the hungry, clothe the poor, and equip the least among us by providing opportunities and a place for all to give and receive hope.

MINOR VOLUNTEER PARENTAL/ GUARDIAN CONSENT FORM

The Shepherd Center allows youth in need of community service for school, civic organization, or court appointed reasons to complete their service hours. Placement of a student is done with permission of the parent or guardian.
